Traditional 1 + 1 Bed House near the Beach in Sought After Resort

in Luz, Lagos

A set of houses in a traditional Portuguese village, perfect for those who want to be surrounded by nature of Western Algarve. Very close to the beach and needed amenities, and a brilliant opportunity to turn into a rental investment, or into a wonderful holiday retreat.

This particular house benefits from a privileged location and background image to the Atlantic coast enjoying country views of the western Algarve, comprised of 1 main bedroom downstairs, with a possibility of adding another large bedroom on the upstairs "loft", with an open plan living and dining area and small fully fitted kitchen, terrace / balcony. Also includes some special features such as central heating in all the rooms, with a towel heater in the bathroom, and satellite TV in the lounge.

Praia da Luz is a lovely town full of charm, a brilliant holiday destination for family retreats, and relaxing in a low key traditional resort and beach front village. Situated to the west of the Algarve near Lagos, and is blessed with both a beautiful beach and glorious climate. Luz has expanded into a popular holiday destination and the growth of tourism has not detracted from the character of the pretty town.
