Unique 5 Bedroom Villa For Sale in Monchique in Monchique, Monchique

A magnificent unique five bedroom house for sale in Caldas de Monchique, situated in a peaceful location on the western hillside surrounded by lush subtropical plants and palm trees.

Originally built in 1938, the Caldas Manor interior has been completely transformed and renovated with only the original walls surrounding the property remaining. Impressive galleries soar two floors high resulting in a spectacular sight to behold, and are home to a great lounging area perfect for relaxing with the family or entertaining friends and family.

New top quality aluminium Georgian style double glazed windows and doors all fitted with antique interior style shutters have recently been fitted and a beautiful glass fronted fan assisted wood burning stove insuring that you are nice and snug in the cooler months. These upgrades will have reduced the existing energy certificate D rating to a much improved level.

On the first floor you will find an open plan living room with a dining area and fully fitted kitchen along with an entertaining area. Upstairs there are three spacious bedrooms, all equipped with their own en-suite bathrooms, cloakroom, utility room and a top terrace.

Stairs from the living room lead to the lower level which has been designed as an apartment and would be a lucrative way of making an additional income if you were to decide to rent this area out, short term or long term. This section has its own private access to the swimming pool and surrounding gardens.
