3 Bedroom Villa for sale in Vilamoura

in Vilamoura, Loulé

This traditional Portuguese house has been lovingly renovated keeping the charm and adding modern living standards such as high quality new bathrooms, spot LED lighting and auto-irrigated gardens. The terracotta flooring remains with a topcoat of protective varnish and the wooden built-in wardrobes also rejuvenated.

Entering the property, you have a reception area opening up to the lounge and dining room with feature curved wall, pillars and polished terracotta floor. Patio doors lead out to the decked pool, barbecue terrace and manicured gardens. Off the lounge is the third bedroom that could alternatively be used as a home office or dining room. The kitchen has been partly fitted keeping the tradition of wooden cabinets and has a new oven, hob and extractor fan. The kitchen has its' own entrance opening out to the gardens and carport. On the ground floor is a guest bathroom with walk in shower and also a handy storage under stairs cupboard.

On the first floor via a beautifully bright spacious open staircase are the two en-suite bedrooms. Both have patio doors open out to balconies and fitted wardrobes in original wood. The guest bedroom has a new bathroom with walk in shower and the master has an en-suite bathroom with hydro massage bath.

All windows have been replaced with PVC double glazed windows in wood effect colour with thermal protection and new air conditioning 3 in 1 units have been installed in all 3 bedrooms and lounge.
