Brand new two bedroom townhouse for sale in Albufeira in Vale de Parra, Albufeira

A brand new two bedroom townhouse currently under construction in Vale de Parra, a fantastic location in the central Algarve. The property is set within a condominium of 14 townhouses, two communal swimming pools and a lovely shared garden area. It would be ideal for those looking to relocate or holiday or it would make a great rental investment capitalising on the area's popularity with holiday makers.

On the ground floor is a kitchen and living room from where you can access the garden and communal swimming pool area. There is also a bathroom on this floor for guests. On the first floor is the master suite and two additional bedrooms and a shared bathroom. At the top of the townhouse is a space that is designed for multiple uses depending on your requirements and there is pre-installation for a Jacuzzi. This floor also offers stunning views towards the sea.

Additional benefits of the property include a garage in the basement with space for two cars, an excellent standard of finish throughout the property and built in wardrobes in the bedrooms.

Vale de Parra is a traditional residential area just 10 minutes drive from the bustling resort of Albufeira and the amenities of nearby Guia. It is an ideal location for those looking for a relaxing place to live or holiday that is conveniently close to everything that the Algarve has to offer.
