

Two bedroom apartment for sale in Portimão

in Portimão, Portimão

A spacious and very bright two bedroom apartment for sale within a great location in Portimão. With lots of amenities nearby including supermarkets, two schools and sport facilities, this apartment would be ideal place to live or it would make a great holiday home or rental investment property capitalising on the area's popularity with holiday makers.

This lovely apartment has three balconies, one of which is covered, meaning that you have someone to relax, enjoy the lovely climate and take in views of the surrounding area.

Additional benefits included a garage parking space, a fully-equipped kitchen, double glazing and a fireplace. There is also an elevator making access to and from the apartment easier.

Portimão's historical centre offers a variety of restaurants that provide traditional Portuguese and international cuisine, multiple cafes and bars are also available. It is also the largest city on the Western Algarve, traditionally known as a centre for sardine, fishing and processing, today most of that industry has been replaced by tourism, leisure and retail. These three things combined make it a large and residential city - ideal for individuals wanting a new place to start a family, vacation or make a savvy investment.
